Dear Friend of PCDC,

We would like wish you a happy and peaceful New Year.

We are pleased to share with you this, our first newsletter of the year. This newsletter brings news to you of the Annual Report from our first year in operation, highlighting some of our activities from 2008. We have many exciting plans for this coming year. We aim to use our website as a means to better keep you informed of the work we are doing in the field of procurement capacity development. To date the website has mainly been functioning as an online database of resources relating to public procurement. It is our aim to make the website even more useful to you; introducing further structuring to better indicate which resources can be found on the site, providing up to date information on PCDC activities and more.

Please find below an overview of the latest news items posted on the PCDC website as well as the resources most recently uploaded.

Thanks for your continued support!

Warm regards
The PCDC Team
